A MESSAGE FROM CARL PETER SHARMAN

Dear family and friends

I hope that you all find this document to be of help and also to give a little comfort. The last thing that I would wish would be to cause any of you any undue stress.

I've put lots of thought into tidying everything up with this document and I hope it will save a lot of headache for you. My apologies if I've missed anything. I've left a few e-mails to let some friends know what's happened and I've asked them to 'spread the word' so don't worry about letting people know.

I'd like to take this opportunity to give my thanks to Jerry Stevens and my brother David for joining my sisters Evelyn Webster and Kathleen Ever as my Plan Administrators. I hope you'll find that I haven't given you too much to do and I would like all the costs associated with these wishes to be met from my estate. Don't be surprised to receive some e-mail messages from me over the next few days, I've mailed you all some helpful details and a few thoughts.

If I had my time again I think I'd take it all a lot less seriously and spend more time enjoying myself. Its important to me that you all know that I will miss you and that without you my life would have had a lot less fun. Don't be sad for me, I had a great time and had more than my fair share of good luck.

I want you all to be strong and try to think about good times that we shared. I don't like to think of any of you being unhappy on my account. I hope that by making my own arrangements I've saved you all some trouble and I hope you'll find my wishes easy to accomodate.

Love always

Carl

OBITUARIES

I wish for my obituary to appear in the following 2 publications as indicated:

Publication: Victoria Times Colonist

Name to Display: Carl Peter Sharman

Number of Insertions: 2

My words:

Sharman - Carl Peter died on _____ in Victoria (or other place) at the age of _____. He is survived by loving wife, Lynn; son, Richard; and brother, David (Vicki). Carl lived life to the fullest and battled right to the end. The words of Robert Service best describe how he faced life and death.

When you're lost in the Wild, and you're scared as a child,
And Death looks you bang in the eye,
And you're sore as a boil, it's according to Hoyle
To cock your revolver and . . . die.
But the Code of a Man says: "Fight all you can,"
And self-dissolution is barred.
In hunger and woe, oh, it's easy to blow . . .
It's the hell-served-for-breakfast that's hard.
"You're sick of the game!" Well, now, that's a shame.
You're young and you're brave and you're bright.
"You've had a raw deal!" I know -- but don't squeal,
Buck up, do your damndest, and fight.
It's the plugging away that will win you the day,
So don't be a piker, old pard!
Just draw on your grit; it's so easy to quit:
It's the keeping-your-chin-up that's hard.
It's easy to cry that you're beaten -- and die;
It's easy to crawfish and crawl;
But to fight and to fight when hope's out of sight --
Why, that's the best game of them all!
And though you come out of each gruelling bout,
All broken and beaten and scarred,
Just have one more try -- it's dead easy to die,
It's the keeping-on-living that's hard.

Funeral service will be held at McCall Bros. Floral Chapel. Interment to follow at Royal Oak Burial Park. Condolences may be offered to the family at www.mccallbros.com.

PETS

In the event of my death I have compiled the following notes and instructions to help with the treatment and care of my pets:

Bobby

Comments:

Bobby likes to have his soft food and his hard food separately and should not be fed table scraps (Lynn: this means not by you too!) - he has to watch his weight. His vet is: Dr. Stan Headley at the Chapel Avenue Veterinary Hospital. I take him for a check up every January. His teeth usually need a clean at this time. His dog license and Vet records are in the blue files in the back room.

Tasha

Comments:

Tasha is a very nervous cat and likes to stay in at night. Make sure that the back window in the garage stays open so that she can jump in. Just keep her food topped up and don't worry if you don't see her from time to time. I like to get her checked up every year at the same time as Bobby at the same vets. We have insurance for Bobby and Tasha, details are in my blue files. It needs renewing in March.

FUNERAL PLANS - POST-FUNERAL

Please follow these wishes and instructions for arrangements after my funeral:

After the Service:

I would like a gathering of all my family and friends after my funeral. I would like for the upstairs portion of the Entrecote restaurant on 63rd street to be reserved for this. Please ask to deal with Peter Markyate to sort the arrangements out. I would like buffet snacks to be available and for $500 to be placed behind the bar.

At this meeting I wish for no sadness, just celebration of the times we all shared. Eat, drink and try to be happy – life's too short to waste in sadness. Lets hope you can all find something good to say about me!

I have left a few words that I would like Ben to read out. These can be found in a sealed envelope stored with the copy of this document. Ben, please do not open this envelope ahead of time.

Choices after Cremation:

I do not want cremation.
